Montaup Country Club
Portsmouth, RI

Member Designed

In 1923 a group of businessmen from nearby Fall River, MA built a small course on a seaside peach orchid on Mt Hope Bay. Today this 18-hole course remains one of the region's favorites with spectacular water views and is always in top condition.

Exeter Country Club
Exeter, RI

Geoffrey Cornish Designed

Rolling lush fairways, scenic views, carefully manicured greens, and a country setting, ECC provides a relaxing golf experience. Located in the tranquil countryside of Exeter and has long been considered one of Rhode Island's finest golf courses.

Newport National
Middletown, RI

Arthur Hills Designed

With humble foundations as a 200-acre landscape nursery, the Newport National Golf Club is easily Rhode Island's best. An 18-hole links golf design with dramatic views of the Atlantic and Sakonnet River Passage.

Meadowbrook
Richmond, RI

Roger Rulewich Designed

A spectacular course with rolling fairways and many elevations. At Par 72 and 7400 yards from the back tees, it is the longest public course in Rhode Island. With large greens, beautifully sculptured bunkers, and strategically placed water hazards.

Triggs Memorial Golf Course
Providence, RI

Donald Ross Designed

Located in the heart of Providence, Triggs is simply a Donald Ross masterpiece that is on every list as one of the best courses in Rhode Island. A muni that is a pleasure to play with a great layout and always fast greens.
